Iowa Chiefs Say McKinley Is Heap Bad Medicine.

Four Iowa chiefs on their way from Washington to their reservation at Perkins, Ok., passed through Union Station yesterday morning. The Indians had been to Washington trying to induce the great father to change the method of payment now in vogue in their trible. They claim that by the present system the agent gets most of the money and that they are legally cheated out of what they know to be their just due. Their journey was without beneficial results, and they were refused railroad fare home. Yesterday they were all in bad humor and swore that the elements had conspired with the Government to make life miserable for them.

Their names are Dan Tohee, Joe Vedder, John Grant and Charles Kehega. Their train was caught in a drift and detained several hours. They say that they were in the smoking car and suffered greatly from the cold. When asked why they did not move to one of the forward cars they grunted and said that they would not lower themselves by going in a car where women were. They said that they were numbed with the cold and were hungry.

The only man who would talk was Joe Vedder. He railed at the Government and said that its only object was to swindle the poor Indian. He says that he and his people have petitioned the Secretary of the Interior to have reform instituted in their tribal management, but that all is in their tribal management, but t Ok., passed through Union Station yesterday morning. call two new candidates, both residents of Greene County, have entered the race. They are Martin J. Hubble and C. W. Hamlin, both prominent men. The other candidates are Judge James Cooney of Saline, Ben Anderson of Boone and W. D. Steele of Pettis. Judge Cooney is now serving his second term in Congress.

The contest over the nomination in this district is certain to prove very exciting, probably more so than that of any other district in the State. All the candidates are good campaigners, and have had considerable experience in politics. It is presumed the Greene County Democrats will only present one name to the convention, and that Messrs. Hubble and Hamlin will submit their claims to the local Democracy as to which will be the candidate of the county.

as to which will be the candidate of the county.

The announcement of the two Greene County candidates has upset a good many plans, as it seems the other candidates were of the opinion, until a few days ago, that Greene would not present any name to the convention. Now previous campaign arrangements will have to be changed to meet present conditions, and it naturally follows there will be a struggle over instructions for second choice. The indication are that it will require a great deal of balloting to make a nomination. Two or three of the candidates will go into the convention with nearly the came number of delegates.

Begin in Court To-Day-Detective Asserts Gamblers Caused Goebel's Assassination.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL Frankfort, Ky., March 1.-Interest to-day centered principally in the Legislature, both ouses of which had a busy session.

At the Senate session a concurrent resolution was sent up by Mr. Utley, calling for the appointment of a committee of five Senators to act in conjunction with a similar committee from the House to investigate the conduct of W. S. Taylor in maintaining bodies of armed men at the Capitol, and to ascertain by whose authority these men are being kept, how many there are, the purposes for which they are being kept, and how and by whom they are being paid.

The committee is to report by bill or rese lution the necessary steps to be taken to rid the seat of Government of the presence of the armed men and to protect the people of the State from the cost of their maintenance

The resolution was adopted unanimously and was sent to the House.

The $100,000 reward bill, which passed the House yesterday, was reported in the Senate and will be passed Saturday.

The law requires the actual bill which bassed both houses, and not identical copies. The Senate confirmed the following apcintments by Governor Reckham to the Deaf and Dumb Institution Board of Com-missioners: J. L. Allen, C. R. McDowell, C. C. Fox and W. S. Rowland of Boyle County and L. W. Hudson of Garrard County.

The Senate reconsidered and passed by a vote of 20 to 0 the Voires insurance bill, aimed at the Whisky Trust.

This bill is to prevent the writing outside of the State of insurance held on property within the State. The bill was defeated last week by a few votes.

The Senate then took up and passed by maniference when the bill represented by

COURT PRECAUTIONARY.

Argument Docket Postponed Till April-Democrats' Explanation.

Frankfort, Ky., March 1.-The Court of Appeals to-day entered an order, postponing the argument docket until the spring term, which begins in April.

The order of the Chlef Justice does not give the reason for this action, but merely states that the Judges will hold their consultations, at which cases will be decided as usual, and that the court will convene on the bench whenever the occasion demands.

In Democratic circles it is said that this action was taken on account of the stories that the lives of two of the judges had been threatened.

The agreed case involving contests for Governor and Lieutenant Governor will be argued at Louisville to-morrow before Judge Field, on a demurrer filed by Republican Governor Taylor's attorneys to the petition of Democratic Governor Beckham. of Democratic Governor Beckham.

The two factions of the State Government are proceeding, each in full operation, but with nothing approaching a clash, pending the litigation over the offices. The treasury of the Democratic faction of the State Government was replenished to-day by payment into it of about $25,900 from officials of Jefferson County. The Democratic officials think that the example set by the Jefferson County officers will be followed by Democratic officers in a majority of the counties where they are in control, and that in a few days they will have enough money to pay current expenses.

> The first spring meeting of the International Merchants' Association for 4900 closed yesterday, but there was no falling off in the number of buyers who are swarming to this market, as the second meeting begins to-morrow. Many of these who came for the first meeting will remain over for the next. Local jobbers continue to do a phenomenal business. For the first time on record jobbers in some lines have been compelled to limit the amount of goods which they could allow to each customer, as manufacturers are so far behind with their orders that it is impossible to have duplicate orders filled within a reassnable limit of time.

Tickets for the second meeting will be placed on sale at all stations to-morrow and continue on sale until March 16, good to return until March 25. A rate of one and one-third fare for the round trip has becamade by the railroads from all points in Texas and from points in Alabama, Mississippi. Teanessee, Kentucky and Illinois. as well as from Indian Territory, Oklahoma and all points in the West and Northwest. President Ben J. Strauss of the Interstate Merchants' Association said that he expected a larger attendance at the next meeting than at the first, although all records were broken by the attendance at the meeting just closed.

Many buyers who have never visited this market have been writing for particulars in tegard to the association, and have expressed their intention of attending the second meeting. As the second spring mil-linery openings of the local jobbing houses occur next Tuesday, a large number of milliners are expected from the various Northern and Western States.

lothing Manufacturing Company, was again before Referee Coles yesterday to further explain the affairs of the concern He was questioned as to what became the company's book and bank pass book, the company's book and bank pass book, together with certain memorandum books which he said the company kept. He could not tell what was done with them, but was certain that they were all in the offic when the company's affairs were turned over to a trustee. He recalled entering purchases of several large bills of goods during the month just prior to the failure, but could not say whether they had ever been delivered to the company. When Mrs. Prinz bought the stock held by A. Lederer in the spring of 1839 he did not know whether the note for $16,000 held by Lederer against the company, was transferred also. A search of his room revealed a bundle of tools consisting of a skeleton key, two steel chisels, a pocket saw, a razor and the stub of a candle. The razor was quite dull, as if it had been used to cut metal. The tools were concealed under his pillow. A short while after his arrest he was identified as the man who cut out about 200 pounds of lead from the vacant house of N. O. Nelson at No. 3324 Morgan street on the night of February 8. A warrant charging grand larceny was sworn out against him. It is thought that he is responsible for several other lead-pipe jobs in the neighborhood, but so far they have falled to identify him.
